

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

If I have already submitted estimates and repair bills to counsel, do I have to send the paperwork in again?

No. However, you still have to send in a timely proof of claim form and you still have to list what the damage consists of. As to the value of the claim, if you do not have the information, you may state: "Documents, with dollar amounts, already in possession of counsel."